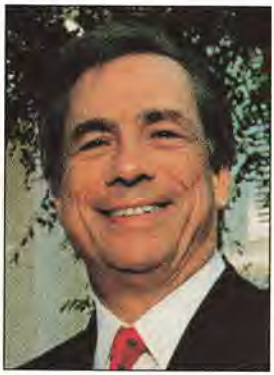
FRONT OFFICE



DONALD T. STERLING — OWNER

Donald T. Sterling took over ownership of the Clippers franchise on June 16, 1981, when the franchise was located in San Diego, and moved the team to Los Angeles prior to the 1984-85 season. Now entering his 15th year as the team's owner, he ranks as one of the veteran owners in the NBA.

Sterling has a track record for success in his business endeavors and brings to the Clippers the same quality leadership that enabled him to create one of America's most successful business enterprises.

Raised in Los Angeles, he is a lawyer, entrepreneur and founder of an organization worth over a billion dollars in assets. He is actively involved in several local charities and educational institutions.

Sterling and his family reside in Beverly Hills and Malibu.

ANDY ROESER — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

As Executive Vice President, Andy Roeser runs the club's day-to-day business affairs, where he oversees the operations in marketing, communications, broadcasting, sales, and finance. Working closely with Elgin Baylor, Roeser is also instrumental in matters involving the salary cap and player negotiations. Representing the Clippers in all league matters, Roeser serves as the Alternate Governor on the NBA Board of Governors.

Entering his tenth year as Executive Vice President, and twelfth overall with the Clippers, Roeser assumed his current role in April, 1986, following two seasons as the Clippers' Chief Financial Officer.

Before joining the Clippers, Roeser enjoyed a successful career with the accounting firm of Ernst & Young, first in Houston and later in Los Angeles.

A native of Michigan, Roeser holds a degree from Michigan State University. He and his wife, Anne, reside in Long Beach with their two children, Drew and Stephanie.

ELGIN BAYLOR — V.P., BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

One of the NBA's all-time greatest players, Elgin Baylor enters his tenth season as Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Clippers. If one thing is certain regarding his tenure, it's that Baylor and the basketball staff are not afraid to make bold moves to improve the team.

In a blockbuster draft-day trade, the Clippers on June 28 acquired impressive young forward Rodney Rogers and promising first-round draft choice Brent Barry (No. 15) of Oregon State from Denver in exchange for the rights to first-round draft pick Antonio McDyess (No. 2) and third-year guard Randy Woods. Later in the summer, the Clippers added to the lineup the versatile and powerful Brian Williams, trading center Elmore Spencer to the Nuggets. All that came just one year after acquiring Pooh Richardson, Malik Sealy and the rights to Eric Piatkowski from Indiana for Mark Jackson and the rights to Greg Minor, June 30, 1994. Multiplayer deals were critical in assembling Clippers teams that made the playoffs two straight seasons (1991-92, 1992-93). The same competitive drive that made Baylor an 11-time All-Star and Hall of Famer as a player has marked his aggressive actions as the head of the Clippers' basketball operations.

The originator of the concept of "hang time," he was known for his improvisational moves and flair. Selected first overall in the 1958 NBA draft by the Minneapolis Lakers out of the University of Seattle, the 6-5 forward averaged 24.9 points and 15.0 rebounds en route to being named 1959 Rookie of the Year.

When he scored 71 points at New York on November 15, 1960, it marked the most anyone had ever scored in an NBA game (and currently ranks as the seventh highest total). The 61 points he scored at Boston in the NBA Finals on April 14, 1962, remains a championship series record. That came after he averaged a career-best 38.3 points for the 1961-62 season. By the time he retired (nine games into the 1971-72 season), Baylor had led the Lakers to seven NBA Championship Series appearances. He's the NBA's eleventh all-time leading scorer (23,149), and his 27.4 scoring average is the third highest in NBA history behind Michael Jordan (32.2 ppg) and Wilt Chamberlain (30.1ppg). He was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1976, and in 1980 was named a member of the NBA's 35th Anniversary All-Time team.

After his playing career, Baylor became an assistant coach for the New Orleans Jazz in 1974-75 — the franchise's first season — and took over the head coaching duties early in the 1976-77 season. Baylor coached the Jazz through the 1978-79 season before moving back to his long-time home of Los Angeles.

Baylor currently resides in Woodland Hills with his wife Elaine and daughter Krystle. He plays golf and tennis as often as his schedule allows, and participates in numerous charity events every year, providing monetary and toy donations to establishments such as the Union Rescue Mission and St. Joseph's Center.

HEAD COACH

BILL FITCH — HEAD COACH

Bill Fitch, the two-time NBA Coach of the Year, needs just two more victories to tie Jack Ramsay for fourth place on the NBA all-time coaching list. Fitch, in his second year with the Clippers, has compiled an 862-942 (.478) career coaching record in his 22 years as an NBA head coach, a record tempered by the fact he's made a career of building winners up from the ground floor. During his 22 NBA seasons, Fitch has posted twelve winning seasons and his teams have won five division titles, including an NBA Championship in 1981 with the Boston Celtics.

Entering the 1994-95 season, Fitch had coached 1,804 NBA games, more than any other coach in league history. If anything has characterized his tenure in the league, it's his willingness and ability to mold teams. The Iowa native made his debut as an NBA head coach with the Cleveland Cavaliers in 1970. He put together the Cavaliers' expansion team in 1970-71 and took the Cavs to the playoffs three times during his nine-year tenure.

In 1979, he took over a Boston Celtic team coming off a 29-win season, the franchise's poorest record in three decades, and guided the Celtics to a 32-game turnaround posting a 61-21 record. That earned him Coach of the Year honors and made him the first coach to ever achieve the honor twice. The following year (1981) the Celtics won the NBA championship after posting a 62-20 regular season record. In 1983, Fitch took over a Houston Rockets team that had won only 14 games the previous year. After winning 29 and 48 games respectively in his first two years with the Rockets, the 1985-86 squad went 51-31 and made it to the NBA Finals. The Rockets made the playoffs in four of his five years when he was Head Coach (1983-88). He served as Head Coach with the New Jersey Nets, 1989-1992, before coming to the Clippers on July 28, 1994.

The 61-year-old Fitch began his coaching career on the collegiate level at his alma mater, Coe College, in 1958. He also served as a Head Coach at North Dakota, Bowling Green and Minnesota before moving on to the NBA ranks. In 12 years as a college coach, he had 10 winning seasons while compiling a 181-115 record. All told, Fitch has posted a 1,042-1,058 (.497) record in 34 years as a Head Coach.

Off the court, Fitch enjoys fishing and playing golf. He has three daughters and in the offseason resides in Houston, Texas.

BASKETBALL STAFF

JIM BREWER — ASSISTANT COACH

After successful years as an NBA player and scout, Jim Brewer enters his fifth season on the bench, his second year with the Los Angeles Clippers.

Brewer, who has been involved in the NBA for over 18 seasons, came to the Clippers from the Minnesota Timberwolves. Originally in a scouting position with the Timberwolves, Brewer moved up to Director of Player Personnel and was eventually promoted to Assistant Coach and Assistant General Manager.

Prior to joining Minnesota, the 42-year old native of Maywood, Ill. spent three seasons as an assistant basketball coach and recruiter at Northwestern University. His 12-year NBA career included stints with Cleveland, Portland and the Los Angeles Lakers, who he helped to an NBA title in the 1981-82 season. Brewer was twice selected to the NBA's All-Defensive team while with Cleveland.

A 1973 graduate of the University of Minnesota, Brewer earned All-America and All-Big Ten honors while helping lead the Gophers to a second place finish in the Big Ten during his Senior season. He also played a major role in the University of Minnesota's 1972 Big Ten title, the Gophers' first outright men's basketball championship in 53 years. Brewer was also a member of the 1972 United States Olympic Basketball team.

Brewer and his wife Patsy have two children, James and Phera.

BARRY HECKER — ASSISTANT COACH

Barry Hecker, who is entering his ninth season with the Clippers, began his career with the franchise in 1987 as Director of Scouting. When Bill Fitch was hired in 1994, Hecker moved to the bench as an assistant coach.

Prior to joining the Clippers staff, Hecker, 46, spent two seasons as the Cleveland Cavaliers Director of Player Acquisition.

A native of Washington D.C., he was head basketball coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah (1976-78). He began scouting professionally in 1979 for the renowned Bertka's Views National Scouting Service, and was subsequently appointed to his post with the Cavs. Hecker made his mark in Cleveland where he was involved with drafting Brad Daugherty, Ron Harper, Mark Price and Johnny Newman.

In addition to coaching at Westminster, Hecker was the Head Coach of the B.S. Leiden Basketball Club of the Dutch Professional League in 1975-76, and an assistant at George Washington University and George Mason University.

Hecker speaks at numerous camps during the summer, and has directed camps for Adrian Dantley, Xavier McDaniel, Muggsy Bogues, Robert Horry and Jose Ortiz in Puerto Rico. A graduate of Frostburg State College, he earned his Master's Degree from George Washington University.

Hecker and his wife Merle reside in Salt Lake City, UT.

BOB OCIEPKA — ASSISTANT COACH

Bob Ociepka is entering his third season as an Assistant Coach with the Clippers. He joined the organization in September 1993 as an assistant coach and head NBA scout. Regarded as one of the top X-and-0 assistant coaches in the league, Ociepka is responsible for the advance scouting of upcoming opponents. His job requires that he travels to several NBA cities throughout most of the season, but also joins the rest of the coaching staff on the bench when scheduling permits. Additional responsiblities include collegiate scouting to helping the team prepare for the draft.

Ociepka came to the Clippers from the Indiana Pacers where he served as an Assistant Coach and an NBA scout from 1989-93. Prior to joining the Pacers, Ociepka was a sucsessful high school coach at Gordon Tech and York High School in Chicago for 19 years. During that time, he gained NBA experience working as a part-time scout with the Detroit Pistons from 1987-1989.

Adding to his list of accomplishments, Ociepka co-authored a book, "Basketball Playbook: Plays From The Pros" which was released last spring. The book diagrams common NBA plays and gives an overview of NBA strategies used by successful NBA coaches.

A native of Chicago, Ociepka graduated from Quincy (IL) College in 1970 where he was a two-year starter on the basketball team.

Ociepka and his wife Anne have a 13-year-old daughter, Katie.

JEFF WELTMAN — DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Jeff Weltman is entering his eighth season with the Clippers organization. In his second season as Director of Scouting, his primary responsiblity is scouting and evaluating talent on the collegiate, CBA and European levels. In addition, Weltman is responsible for overseeing the scouting department and assembling players for the Clippers summer league squad and veterans camp.

Assisting in the club's player personnel decisions, Weltman spends much of the NBA season attending college games all over the country as well as scouting several tournaments in Europe.

Weltman, 30, has worked his way through the ranks of the scouting department, originally joining the Clippers in 1988 as Video Coordinator/Scout before being promoted to Assistant Director of Scouting in 1991.

A New York native, Weltman graduated from Oberlin College in 1987.

REX KALAMIAN — VIDEO COACH

Rex Kalamian is entering his second year with the Clippers, but in a new position this season as Video Coach. In addition to preparing tapes of the Clippers in practices as well as games, his duties include assisting the coaching staff in the coordination of NBA scouting as well as maintaining video files on college players.

Kalamian began working with the Clippers in a volunteer role in 1993, assisting the scouting department in compiling team statistical information on game nights. Because of his knowledge and work ethic, Kalamian was promoted to Assistant Diector of Scouting in 1994.

The Southern California native graduated from Cal Poly Pomona in 1993 with a degree in Business Management.

Kalamian is single and currently resides in Monterey Park.

REGIONAL SCOUTS

Evan Pickman-- Evan Pickman begins his tenth year as the Clippers' East Coast scout. He is a Professor of Health and Physical Education at the College of Staten Island in New York City where he previously coached the men's basketball team from 1970-84 to many local and regional titles. His Clippers' duties include evaluating college talent and scouting upcoming Eastern Conference opponents.

Jim Mitchell-- Jim Mitchell has been the Clippers' Midwest scout for eight years. As a high school basketball coach in Kentucky and Indiana, he won over 650 games, including three undefeated seasons. Mitchell has also coached at the University of Cincinnati, Oakland University and in Venezuela. Mitchell lives in Lexington, KY with his wife Lillian.

MEDICAL STAFF

Dr. Tony Daly-- A world-renound orthopaedic surgeon, Dr. Daly has been the Clippers' team physician since the club moved to Los Angeles in 1984. His responsibilities range from performing surgery to the supervision of the trainer and strength and conditioning coach.

Dr. Mukesh Bhatia-- A team physician since 1987, Dr. Mukesh Bhatia handles all internal medical situations for the Clippers. He is a senior partner of the respected Access Medical Group in Marina Del Rey.

Dr. Mark Laska-- Dr. Laska has been the Clippers' team dentist since 1988. A graduate of USC Dental School, Laska's practice in Los Angeles has been thriving for more than 20 years.

Dr. Daly is assisted by Dr. Gene Osher, Dr. Steven Krems and Dr. John Pack.

BASKETBALL STAFF

KEITH JONES — HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

In what is now his sixth season with the club, Keith Jones has been on the Clippers' bench for more than 650 consecutive games, serving as the Clippers' Head Athletic Trainer. His responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the physical therapy and rehabilitation of the team, in addition to organizing all team travel arrangements.

When hired on June 28, 1990, Jones became the first African-American and youngest trainer in the NBA at age 28.

One of the reasons Jones was entrusted with the highly coveted position of NBA trainer at such a relatively young age was because of his extensive experience in the field of athletic training. Jones got his start while attending the University of Arkansas, working as a student trainer for Razorbacks football and basketball teams all four years. Jones maintained his heavy workload in the summers, working as an intern trainer assistant for the Philadelphia Eagles. Upon graduating from Arkansas in 1984, he spent two seasons in the USFL as the trainer for the Oklahoma Outlaws and Arizona Wranglers. From there Jones rejoined Coach Lou Holtz at the University of Minnesota, but when the NBA expanded its league in 1988, he set his sights on professional basketball.

Jones was hired by the Orlando Magic as Assistant Trainer and was there for one season when the Head Trainer position became open with the Clippers.

Now 33 and one of the premier trainers in the NBA, Jones and his wife, Madge, reside in Palos Verdes and are the parents of daughter Morgan Ashley.

JOHNNY DOYLE — STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Johnny Doyle is entering his second season as the Clippers' Strength and Conditioning Coach. He is responsible for administering guidance to the players with concern to strength and conditioning programs devised by Doyle himself. In addition, he assists trainer Keith Jones with the physical therapy and rehabilitation of the players.

Prior to joining the Clippers, Doyle worked for the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopaedic Clinic for eight years (1986-94). He's a member of the NBCCA (National Basketball Conditioning Coaches Association) and NSCA (National Strength Coaches Association). Although he didn't assume the title of Strength and Conditioning Coach until last year, Doyle has assisted the training staff since 1991, primarily on game nights.

Doyle, 29, was born and raised in Los Angeles, and is extremely active in the community he grew up in. He volunteers his time helping the Verbum Dei High School football team (his alma mater), and teamed with Orthopaedic Hospital and the doctors at Kerlan-Jobe to establish a new trainers program at Dorsey and Crenshaw High Schools.

He enjoys jet skiing, playing basketball and spending time with his family.

PETE SERRANO — EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Entering his tenth season with the organization, very few members of the Clippers' front office have had a longer tenure than that of Equipment Manager Pete Serrano. In what will be his eighth season in his current role, Serrano is responsible for the purchase and care of uniforms and equipment and ensuring that those items arrive at their destinations when the team travels. Along with assisting trainer Keith Jones in a variety of capacities, Serrano's role is a very demanding one.

He began his career as a Clippers' ballboy in 1986, and immediately thereafter began to assume a leadership role in that capacity. Besides working every afternoon for the basketball staff, Serrano helped out with projects in several front office departments before earning the position of equipment manager in 1988. A native of West Covina, CA, Serrano graduated from Edgewood High School.

Though his hours on the job are extensive, Serrano finds time to spend either at the beach or with his two-year-old daughter, Haley Brooke.

BROADCASTERS

RALPH LAWLER — UPN 13-KCOP/710 TALK-KMPC

Ralph Lawler will for his 17th season bring the action to Clippers fans all over Southern California as the familiar "Voice of the Clippers". Lawler will handle all play-by-play duties for games televised on UPN 13-KCOP and can be heard on 710Talk-KMPC for all other Clipper contests.

A mainstay in the Clippers organization, Lawler joined the franchise when the team moved to San Diego in 1978. Very few broadcasters have had the staying power that Lawler has, evident in the fact that he is one of only seven current NBA play-by-play announcers to broadcast more than 1,000 games for their present team.

The versatile sportscaster is one of a select few announcers who have called the play-by-play for a team in each of the four major professional sports leagues: NFL (San Diego Chargers), MLB (Philadelphia Phillies), NHL (Philadelphia Flyers), and NBA (Philadelphia 76ers/Clippers). His resume also includes stints broadcasting events as varied as ABA and college basketball, track and field, auto racing, boxing and college football.

NBA basketball, however, has always been Lawler's first love. He was a twice-a-night sports anchor at the CBS affiliate, WCAU-TV, in Philadelphia in 1978 when the call came to join the Clippers in San Diego. It was an offer he could not resist.

Lawler's work has not gone unnoticed. The Clippers telecasts won back-to-back Emmy Awards in 1993 and 1994 to go with his collection of Golden Mike and Pennsylvania Sportcaster of the Year awards.

A Pennsylvania native, Lawler is a graduate of Bradley University and was inducted into his alma mater's Sports Hall of Fame in 1993.

Lawler lives in Laguna Niguel and has a son, Ralph Jr., who lives in San Diego.

BILL WALTON — UPN 13-KCOP

The Clippers man in the middle from 1979-85, Bill Walton returns as the man with the mike for his fifth season on UPN 13-KCOP. Seated alongside Ralph Lawler, Walton will provide color commentary for all of the Clippers' broadcasts, just as he has done since joining the broadcast team prior to the 1990-91 season.

Walton has carried a heavy workload since moving to the broadcasting side of sports, working with the NBA on NBC, CBS Sports during the NCAA Final Four, Prime Sports Pac-10 coverage, pro beach volleyball, and ESPN's "Up Close" with Roy Firestone.

Walton graduated with honors from UCLA, where he enjoyed a very successful college career under the legendary John Wooden. Walton was both an All-American selection and the NCAA Player of the Year in 1972, 1973, and 1974, and was a member of UCLA's 1972 and 1973 NCAA Championship teams.

The first overall pick of the 1974 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, Walton led the Blazers to the 1977 NBA Championship and in 1978 was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player. Eight years later, Walton earned another NBA title with the Boston Celtics. To add to his honors, Walton was a member of the NBA All-Star team in 1977 and 1978.

A 1993 inductee into the NBA Hall of Fame, the first former Clippers player to be given such an honor, Walton enjoys working out and tutoring NBA players in the fundamentals of the game.

RORY MARKAS — 710 TALK-KMPC

Rory Markas, a familiar figure in the Los Angeles sports scene, remains a part of the Clippers radio broadcast team for his second season. Joining Ralph Lawler as color analyst for radio broadcasts on 710 Talk-KMPC, Markas will step up to perform the play-by-play duties when Lawler is on air for games televised on UPN 13-KCOP.

Markas began his association with the Clippers in 1991 when he became the team's public address announcer. In addition to his Clippers committment, Markas serves as weekend sports anchor for KCBS-TV's Channel 2 Action News, is a sports anchor for KNX-AM radio and works as a guest reporter for the KTLA Morning News.

A graduate of Los Angeles Valley College in Van Nuys, Markas has seen more of this country than many. He began his broadcasting career in 1976 as News Director for KAMO-AM/FM in Rogers, Arkansas. From there he had various news and sports reporting positions in Palmdale, Las Vegas, Tucson, Flagstaff, Milwaukee, Salt Lake City and Vancouver.

He has done play-by-play for the Milwaukee Brewers, spent three years providing AAA baseball play-by-play with the Salt Lake City Gulls, and for three years called the action for the Vancouver Canadiens. He also announced games for the Salt Lake Golden Eagles hockey team.

Markas, a resident of Burbank, is single and is an avid golfer.

STEVEN CHENG — KAZN RADIO

The only team in the NBA to broadcast games in Chinese, the Clippers are continuing in the committment to bring Clippers basketball to fans all across Southern California. For the second consecutive season, the Clippers have teamed up with KAZN Asian Radio - 1300AM to provide the massive Chinese-speaking population in Los Angeles with the excitement of NBA basketball. With Steven Cheng behind the microphone once again this year, the Clippers have increased the number of broadcasts from seven games in the 1994-95 season to ten in 1995-96. An experienced announcer with a longtime history in radio, Cheng also serves as the station's Promotions and Programming Liaison.

KAZN was the first and only all-Asian radio station in the United States when it began in 1989. Today, KAZN broadcasts nearly 20 hours per day, seven days a week.

KAZN and the Los Angeles Clippers are proud of their efforts in taking on a greater role in introducing an important part of American life to the Chinese community.

TELEVISION
UPN 13-KCOP

UPN 13-KCOP enters into its fifth year of Emmy Award winning Clippers broadcasts. This coming season, UPN 13's 36-game schedule will once again be anchored by Ralph Lawler, the "Voice of the Clippers" for 17 years. Returning for his fifth year as color commentator is NBA Hall-of-Famer and network analyst Bill Wallton.

Together, this exciting broadcast team will bring NBA action to Clippers fans across Southern California, highlighted by contests versus Michael Jordan and the Chicago Bulls (12/2), the defending World Champion Houston Rockets (11/28, 1/13, 4/18) and the cross-town rival LA Lakers (11/19, 2/20).

RADIO
710Talk-KMPC

The Clippers radio network is anchored by flagship station 710Talk-KMPC, who will carry all Clippers home and away contests throughout the season. On all non-televised games, Ralph Lawler will call the action along with color commentary added by Rory Markas. For those games that air on UPN 13-KCOP, Markas will go alone, handling the play-by-play duties.

For the past four seasons, radio listeners have tuned in to 710 Talk to catch all the Clippers action.

RADIO
KAZN - Chinese

In what is now their second year as the only outlet to broadcast NBA games in Chinese, KAZN 1300AM will bring NBA excitement to the extensive Chinese-speaking population in Los Angeles. Calling the action again this year is Steven Cheng, a longtime figure in radio who also serves as KAZN's Promotions and Programming Liaison.

COMMUNICATIONS

JOE SAFETY VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Joe Safety begins his third season as the Clippers' Vice President of Communications. He's the Clipper's team spokesman, and responsibilities include directing the team's broad-ranging media and public relations activities.

Safety's professional sports career began in baseball in 1975 with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where in 1978, he became the youngest Public Relations Director in Major League history.

From 1983-85 he served as Director of Media Relations for the New York Yankees. He moved to Los Angeles in 1986 and in 1988 was named Executive Producer of the Financial News Network (now CNBC), where he was in charge of sports news programming.

Safety joined the Clippers after two years as a television producer/developer with Pattyson-Meadows Productions, an independent production company in Studio City.

A native of West Virginia and a graduate of West Virginia University, Safety resides in Los Angeles.

JESSE BARKIN DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

In his first season with the Clippers, Jesse Barkin's responsibilities as Director of Communications include managing all areas of media relations and public relations.

Prior to joining the Clippers, Barkin spent nine years (1986-95) as a sports reporter for the Los Angeles Daily News. Barkin spent eight years as an NBA beat writer, covering the Clippers for two seasons and the Lakers for six. In 1990, Barkin began writing his own weekly NBA column for the Daily News.

The 34-year-old graduate of the University of Michigan enjoys playing golf in his spare time away from basketball.

Barkin and his wife, Faith, reside in Burbank.

JON SLUSSER COMMUNICATIONS ASSISTANT

Jon Slusser begins his fourth year with the Los Angeles Clippers as Communications Assistant. Slusser serves as editor for many of the Clippers publications including the Clippers Insider, Yearbook and Media Guide. In addition, he contributes to all areas of media and public relation such as game notes, media requests and press releases.

Slusser, 24, joined the Clippers in October 1992 as a Public Relations Intern and served in that capacity until October 1994 when he was promoted to Communications Assistant. Prior to joining the Clippers organization he worked for Fox Broadcasting in the Publicity Department.

A 1993 graduate of the University of Southern California with a degree in Marketing and Finance, Slusser resides in Manhattan Beach. He enjoys playing basketball, skiing and flying private planes.

JILL WIGGINS COMMUNICATIONS ASSISTANT

The 1995-96 season will mark Jill Wiggins' fifth season in the Clippers Communications Department. In her current role as Communications Assistant, Wiggins handles many of the responsibilities involved with game operations and servicing the media, including supervising the department's internship staff. The editor of HOOP Magazine, the Clippers' in-arena game program, Wiggins also contributes to the layout and copy of all other departmental publications, serving as co-editor of the team's media guide.

While attending the University of Southern California and majoring in Communications, Wiggins, 24, began an internship with the team in 1991. First as a game-night intern, then as a full-time intern working in the office on a daily basis, Wiggins was promoted to her current position in 1994.

A native of Southern California, Wiggins resides in Westchester and enjoys playing softball, tennis and golf.

MITCH HUBERMAN VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

Mitch Huberman enters his tenth season with the Los Angeles Clippers. As Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting, Huberman oversees all marketing efforts and is responsible for the Clippers' corporate sponsorship programs. He also is executive producer of all Clippers' radio programs on 710Talk-KMPC and handles the needs of Clippers' television.

Huberman is responsible for a variety of creative and innovative marketing programs and events. He is responsible for bringing the Adtime Courtside Signage System into the United States and the NBA in 1989. Now in 18 NBA markets, this system is revolutionizing the way sports signage is displayed and measured. The Clippers were also the first ever NBA team to have a Chinese-language radio broadcast. This past season, Huberman was elected to the NBA Marketing Advisory Board.

In the community, Huberman has created several programs that have significantly impacted Southern California, including the Clippers Neighborhood PRIDE program, which has rebuilt more than 50 basketball courts in the inner city, and the Clippers Late Night Hoops League, which provides positive alternatives to at-risk youths.

A graduate of Franklin & Marshall College, Huberman serves as Vice Chairman of the Los Angeles Clippers Foundation, and is a member of the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement.

Prior to joining the Clippers, Huberman worked for the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee. He also was the Director of Marketing for the Los Angeles Express of the United States Football League.

Huberman, his wife Charlotte and two sons, Ross and Marc, reside in Los Angeles.

CARL LAHR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Carl Lahr's rise through the ranks of the Clippers' organization is indicative of his loyalty and stability as a vital member of the front office staff for 15 years.

In the 25 years the Clippers/Braves franchise has been a part of the NBA, Lahr has had a significant contribution for over half of the organization's existence. Joining the club in San Diego in 1981 as an account executive, Lahr was one of a few employees who joined the club in their relocation to Los Angeles in 1984.

In that time, he progressed through a variety of behind-the-scenes activities before being appointed his to current position as Vice President of Sales & Marketing in August of 1991.

In his tenure, Lahr has served in the areas of operations, promotions and sales, gradually broadening his responsibilities and experience. His current role includes the supervision of the franchise's marketing efforts, which include ticket sales, ticket operations, promotions, advertising and game operations.

Lahr is particularly proud of how successful the Clippers' Anaheim Series went last season. He and the sales staff took a look at what was essentially an untested NBA market, then did nothing more than sell out the entire seven-game package.

He cites working and helping develop young talent in the sports marketing field as one of the most rewarding aspects of his position.

An alumnus of Penn State University, Lahr graduated in 1980 with a Bachelor's degree in Journalism.

1994-95 REVIEW

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE CLIPPERS:

Quotes from around the league over the past season.

Paul Westphal, Phoenix Suns
"I told Bill after the game that I don't see any team in the league playing harder (than the Clippers)...They have not quit once this year and are playing hard every night."

Mike Fratello, Cleveland Cavaliers
"(The Clippers) played hard. They played aggressive and they had discipline. This is a team that has been growing and playing better. They did a great job against us."

Pat Riley, Miami Heat
"(Coach Fitch) has done a hell of a job with that team. You have to tip your hat off to them. When people talk about the Clippers, everyone presumes that they don't have to come in and play. What you have to realize is that if you don't play hard against this team, you're going to lose."

Reggie Miller, Indiana Pacers
"They played very hard. They've got a lot of guys who hustle and play hard and that's really all you want. They may not have all the talent in the world, but they've got guys out there who compete."

Don Chaney, Detroit Pistons
"That team scares me. Nobody wants to lose to the Clippers, but they play exceptionally hard. They've got nothing to lose. That team is dangerous. You come out lax and you're going to get beat."

Danny Ainge, Phoenix Suns
"I respect those guys because they play hard. They have some good, young players. I like Piatkowski and Sealy and Murray has a good shot, they just don't have any stars."

Jerry Sloan, Utah Jazz
"(The Clippers) play hard. I know they don't get a lot of credit, but they play hard and that's a credit to Bill. They have so many guys that can move so well in different positions."

Hakeem Olajuwon, Houston Rockets
"If they played like this every night, they wouldn't have the record they have. You have to respect those guys. The way they move the ball and play, I'm surprised by their record."

Spud Webb, Sacramento Kings
"They play hard and if you don't come to play, they will beat you."

Karl Malone, Utah Jazz
"Give those guys credit. They do play hard. They play hard the whole game."

Bernie Bickerstaff, Denver Nuggets
"One thing you know about the Clippers, they never surrender."

Gregg Popovich, San Antonio Spurs
"You don't see teams with their record playing as hard or as unselfishly as they do. They could have quit but they haven't. That's a tribute to Bill."

CLIPPERS IN THE COMMUNITY

TAKING "PRIDE" IN LOS ANGELES

The Los Angeles Clippers know that teamwork is important on the court. Off the court, their dedication to the community demonstrates their belief in that same concept of teamwork. The Clippers know that basketball is more than just a game and the Clippers organization takes tremendous pride in the many programs and messages they deliver to thousands of fans each season. In addition to these programs, the Clippers have recently established The Los Angeles Clippers Foundation whose main focus is the fundamental concerns that are s prevalent in our society, from education and health issues to drug and violence awareness. The concept of team work is further demonstrated in the Foundation's motto "TEAM - Together Everybody Achieves More."

The Clippers' primary community program for the past three seasons has been Neighborhood PRIDE. Co-sponsored by ARCO Products, Neighborhood PRIDE is a three-part program that has reached over 50,000 youngsters. The program has resulted in over 60 instructional basketball clinics, three city-wide tournaments and the refurbishment of over 50 basketball courts in the Los Angeles area. Last season, a new element was incorporated into the program with the addition of the Holiday PRIDE Christmas Party. The Sports Arena parking lot was converted into a "Winter Wonderland" for the 2,000 local youngsters who were all treated to fun, games, gifts, Santa Claus and 25 tons of snow that was trucked in from Mammouth Mountain.

The Clippers' Stay-in-School program focuses on junior high school students and involves over 90 schools in the Los Angeles area. Last season, the top three schools each month were rewarded for their great efforts in attendance with a visit from the Clippers' Stay in School Spokesperson and Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream, the Program's title sponsor. Last season, 16 visits were made to schools in the Los Angels area. Some schools in the Program were awarded top honors in their district for improved attendance. They attributed a large part of their attendance increases to the Clippers' Program. On-going incentives are also provided to students with at least a 93% attendance rate, including posters, book covers, autographs and a chance to attend the Clippers' annual Stay in School Jam.

Another very successful program in the community has been the Clippers' and Foot Locker's Late Night Hoops League. The League provides a positive alternative to gang violence and allows its athletes to run the courts instead of running the streets. The League targets 17 to 30 year olds and recruits from gang and drug impacted neighborhoods throughout Los Angeles. The Program has over 250 young adults involved and prior to each game, the athletes go through one-on-one counseling with their mentors from the Central Recovery and Development Agency. The games take place three nights a week from 8 p.m. to 3 a.m. at the Harvard Recreation Center located in the heart of South Central Los Angeles.

In addition to these programs, the Clippers actively participate in events with our "adopted" special-education school - Widney High School and the Los Angeles Clippers Foundation actively supports such charitable organizations as the Union Rescue Mission, St. Joseph's Center, Special Olympics, Hearts for Flowers, The Times' Childrens Charity Fund and numerous community centers.

For further information regarding these programs, please contact the Clippers' Community Relations Department.

NBA COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting programs dedicated to improving the quality of life for all people.

For years, the NBA has created and implemented programs league-wide to address important socia issues, with special emphasis on helping young people. This year's youth-based education programs will include the NBA Stay in School program, created to encourage students to graduate from high school through school visits by NBA players and coaches; and conflict resolution workshops designed to train teachers and educate students in methods to resolve conflict without resorting to violence. Public service announcements and educational materials will also focus on anti-violence/conflict resolution message.

The NBA continues its support of CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse and Special Olympics through television and radio public service announcements and other awareness-building efforts. The NBA also creates PSAs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month each year. In addition, the NBA's 29 teams are making a difference, across the United States and Canada, through active involvement in a multitude of outreach efforts pertinent to the needs of their respective communities.

THE TORONTO RAPTORS...A TIMELINE

November 4, 1993: The NBA Board of Governors officially grants Toronto an NBA expansion franchise under the ownership of the Professional Basketball Franchise (Canada) Inc., with John Bitove as team president.

May 15, 1994: Toronto officially begins the 18-month countdown to its first tip-off in November 1995 by unveiling its name, logo and colors.

May 24, 1994: Two-time NBA World Champion and former Detroit Pistons star, Isiah Thomas, is named Vice President of Basketball Operations.

March 8, 1995: The Raptors and Canada Post announce they have signed a binding agreement for the purchase and sale of land at 40 Bay Street, the site of the Raptors new home, the Air Canada Centre. The 22,500-seat arena, with its 200,00 square foot office tower, will be completed in the Fall of 1997.

June 2, 1995: The Raptors name Brendan Malone, a veteran of 26 years in the coaching profession including 9 years in the NBA, as the first head coach in team history.

ABOUT THE RAPTORS...

THE NAME GAME: A Top 10 list of possible franchise names included Beavers, Bobcats, Dragons, Grizzlies, Hogs, Scorpions, T-Rex, Tarantulas and Terriers.

MERCHANDISE: By January '95, before ever playing in a single NBA contest, the Raptors had launched themselves into the top 10 in NBA licensed product sales.

1995 NBA DRAFT: Toronto was host to the 1995 NBA Draft on June 28 at the SkyDome. There were 21,268 in attendance which set a new NBA Draft record. The Raptors drafted Damon Stoudamire from Arizona (7th overall) and Jimmy King from Michigan (35th overall).

THE VANCOUVER GRIZZLIES...A TIMELINE

February 12, 1994: During All-Star Weekend in Minneapolis, Vancouver Basketball Management, Inc, bearing the moniker "Vancouver Mounties", has its bid unanimously endorsed by the NBA Expansion Committee.

April 27, 1994: The NBA Board of Governors awards a conditional franchise to Vancouver for a $125 million expansion fee.

July 22, 1994: Stu Jackson is introduced as Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager of the yet-to-be-named Vancouver franchise.

August 11, 1994: The team unveils its name, logo and colors.

May 16, 1995: The NBA closes the expansion agreement, officially making the Raptors and Grizzlies the 28th and 29th teams.

June 1, 1995: Free agent guard Kevin Pritchard becomes the first player signed.

June 19, 1995: Brian Winters, a veteran of 18 seasons in the NBA as a player and an assistant coach, is named head coach.

ABOUT THE GRIZZLIES...

A GEOGRAPHY LESSON: Vancouver's dramatic profile belongs to Mother Nature - towering mountains soar thousands of vertical feet above the city at the ocean's shore. Summits including The Lion's, Mount Hollyburn, Grouse Mountain, Mount Seymour and Golden Ears are the guards overlooking the city of 1.7 million people. Located 135 miles north of Seattle, the climate is gentle and moderate without any drastic fluctuations between seasons.

WHAT'S IN A NAME: Grizzlies are part of the Northwestern landscape of British Columbia. They range from three to ten feet high and weigh anywhere from 270 to 360 kilograms.

THE BEAR NECESSITY: The Grizzlies will be playing home games at General Motors Place - a state of the art entertainment facility situated in downtown Vancouver. This privately funded arena is also home to the NHL's Vancouver Canucks and is host to many concerts and entertainment spectacles.

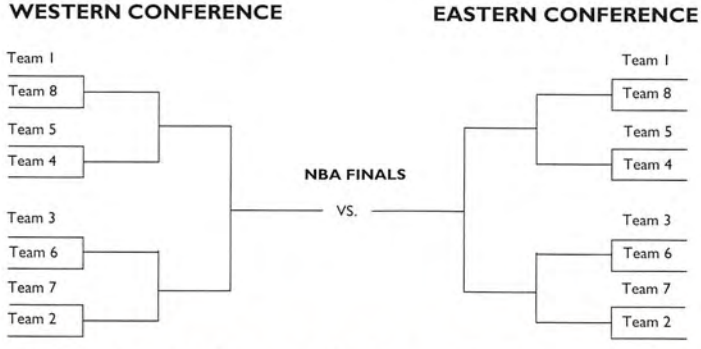
NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE

1. Sixteen teams qualify for the playoffs, with eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.
2. The first round of the playoffs is a best-of-five series with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA Finals, being best-of-seven. All qualifying teams will participate in the first round.
3. All best-of-seven rounds will play a 2-2-1-1-1 format with the exception of the NBA Finals. That series will play a 2-3-2 format.



Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record, Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular season winning percentage.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Clippers press and photo credentials are issued to accredited media for the purpose of providing access to locker rooms, press lounge, press working areas and seating when reservations have been made in advance. Single game credentials must be requested no later than 24 hours prior to the desired game, and can be obtained by contacting the Clippers' Communications Department at (213) 745-0400. Credentials are available for pick-up 2-1/2 hours prior to tipoff at the Press Gate, located on the west side, upper level of the Sports Arena. Season credentials and single game passes must be visibly worn at all times to avoid any inconvenience. Media Seating will be determined by the Communications Department.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS: Game Notes are available in the press room 2-1/2 hours prior to tip-off. Quarter, halftime and final box scores will be furnished to the working media by the Clippers' game night staff throughout the game.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with NBA policy, the Clippers' and visiting locker rooms will be open to members of the media up to 45 minutes prior to game time, and beginning 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms.

PRESS GATE: The press gate is located on the west side, upper level of the Sports Arena, and will open promptly 2-1/2 hours before tipoff. Los Angeles Clippers' media and photo credentials, and National Basketball Association issued credentials will be honored for admittance to the Sports Arena, press working area and locker rooms.

PRESS WORKING AREA: The press working area is located on the west side, lower level of the Sports Arena, and is equipped with telephones, fax service, statistics, post game quotes and scores of other NBA games.

TV AND STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS: Limited space is available at each baseline of the court for credentialed television and still photographers. The sideline area in front of the press table is off limits to all television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area, and are asked to be considerate of season ticket holders seated directly behind them. Photographers wishing to cover the Clippers must request credentials at least 24 hours prior to the desired game. Floor spots will be determined on a first come, first serve basis unless otherwise indicated by the Communications Department.

STATISTICIANS: The Communications Department will provide statisticians to assist visiting radio and television broadcasters. If you need a statistician, please make arrangements for the service in advance to avoid any conflicts.

FAX SERVICE: The Communications Department is available to service local and visiting writers covering Clippers' home games.

PARKING: The policy for parking passes is the same as for daily credentials. Requests must be made no later than 24 hours prior to game desired, without exception, to reserve parking. Media parking is located near the southwest side of arena. Enter the lot on Hoover from Martin Luther King Blvd.

We hope that you enjoy your visit to the Los Angeles Sports Arena. If there is anything we can do to assist you, please do not hesitate to ask.

Gravity is for wimps.
To those who thumb their nose at the laws of physics.
To those for whom a wooden floor is little more than a launch pad into orbit.
We're proud to support you. What supports you up in the air? We'll never know.
